

Islington Law Centre, a busy inner-London specialist advice agency, has the following vacancies:-

Debt caseworker supervisor – 35 hours per week for one year initially

The post holder will meet the Legal Services Commission's supervisor standard in debt and will have experience of county court civil procedures.

They will need a strong commitment to outreach, project and policy work, as well as being able to offer telephone advice and run their own caseload.

.Hours: 35 or 40 hours a week.

Pay: £35,053 per pro rata

Consumer caseworker – 17.5 hours per week for one year initially

The post holder will have at least two years experience of consumer advice and casework and will have experience of county court civil procedures and other forms of dispute resolution procedures. They will provide initial advice, ongoing casework and representation.

Hours: 17.5 or 22.5 hours a week

Pay: £30,351 per annum pro rata

LawWorks Supervisor – 5 hours per week

We require a supervisor for our Monday evening LawWorks volunteer advice session which deals mainly with consumer, debt and general contractual disputes including housing disrepair and Parking Fines disputes – we are inviting applicants for either of the above posts to apply for this additional role.

Further details and application forms are available from Nephertiti Schandorf (nephertitis@islingtonlaw.org.uk). The closing date is 10 am on Wednesday 17 February 2010.